Notice for Depositing Social Security Contributions

Social Security Fund (SSF) has issued a notice on 29 Shrawan 2076 to organizations registered with SSF to start depositing the contributions immediately from Shrawan 2076. Employers who have been already registered in SSF and contributing to Employee Provident Fund (EPF) till the Ashad 2076 shall deposit 31% of basic salary in SSF at the time of payment of salary.

For other employers who are under the process of registration, until they get registered in SSF, can continue depositing in the contributions with the EPF or Citizen Investment Trust (CIT). However, all those unregistered employers and employees are required to get registered within 30 Ashwin, 2076 (17 October 2019). Please click here to view notice from SSF.

The SSF has designated the bank account for depositing the contributions. For detail procedure of depositing SSF fund by employer in the bank account can be accessed through following link please click here.

The contribution can also be deposited through online process after connecting to IPS e-payment system. Please click for list of IPS members.
